And said bonds shall inure to the benefit of any subdivisions of the State suffering any loss of funds delivered to such Board, where such loss is occasioned by the default or negligence of such member of the said Board; and the rights and benefits of such bonds may be invoked by the supervising officers, or any citizens, of any subdivision suffering such loss."

It is the intention of this Act that all indebtedness authorized and outstanding on April 1, 1929, issued for the purpose of constructing roads and bridges within the several Counties of the State, whether such indebtedness shall have been issued as a County obligation or issued as an obligation of a Special Road and Bridge District, or refunding bond issued to retire either principal or interest, or both, of County road and bridge obligation or Special Road and Bridge District obligation, shall be eligible to participate in the distribution of such money. Any bonds issued by any County or Special Road and Bridge District for the construction of any bridges and ferries for the use of which tolls are charged, shall be included as herein provided in determining the amount of money to be allotted to such County under the provisions of this Act, provided that any sinking funds heretofore accumulated by such County or District from tolls, and any interest accrued thereon, shall remain the property of such County and in the custody and control of the Administrative Board of such County now having custody and control thereof by

In the event of any insufficiency of toll collections upon any County or District toll bridge, ferry or road for which bonds have been issued to meet the bonded debt charge of such toll bridge, ferry or road for any fiscal year in which gasoline tax moneys become allocable under the provisions of law, the amount of bonded indebtedness of any County on account of such toll road, bridge or ferry upon which allocation of gasoline tax moneys may be permitted under this Act shall be only the amount of principal represented by the deficit computed upon the rate of interest of the bonds outstanding upon such toll bridge, road or ferry. All bonds issued by Counties or otherwise that are payable out of the proceeds of special assessments levied upon abutting property shall not participate, unless such bonds were issued for the purpose of building or constructing a road or highway which prior to April the first, 1929, has been designated as a State road or highway.

Amendment No. 7, as amended:

Strike out Section 19 and insert in lieu thereof, the following: Section 19.
